Remembrance

Deborah Lynn Laviene was born December 22, 1959 at Saint Mary's Hospital in Long Beach, California to the proud parents of Effray Lee Laviene and Ruth Lavoris Laviene. She grew up in San Francisco, CA attended Abraham Lincoln High School, also Heald's Business College. Her interest was engineering which she was mechanically inclined could put anything together without directions (or manual). As a child Deborah had a fascination with driving. Which led to employment working for Golden Gate Transit in Marin County. Loved watching National Geographic, Animal Kingdom, Discovery Channel, Crossword puzzle books. Now when it comes to music Deborah was Mary J. Blige biggest fan, singing and dancing every time she heard a song. And loved all California teams on the West Coast, Golden State Warriors, Los Angeles Lakers, San Francisco Giants, and the San Francisco 49ers. Was proud living in the Bay Area a true Frisco native. And it wasn't just the Bay Area it was San Francisco. Very comical with a beautiful smile, loving supportive mother and grandmother. Will be missed and loved by all left behind.

Deborah leaves to cherish her memory her only son Dominic Darcel Parker, (Natoya Carlisle), Zahir Dominic Parker (grandson), Sacramento, CA Christina Zeigler (step-daughter) San Francisco, CA Effray Laviene (Father) Houston, TX Ruth Lavoris Laviene (mother), Karen Laviene (sister) Nacogdoches, TX Darral Laviene (deceased brother), Melinda Laviene (sister-in- law) Sacramento, CA Candace Laviene Bushnell (Sister) Richmond, CA Dorie Laviene (uncle), Tommy Laviene (aunt) Oakland, CA and a host of Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and Friends.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.
